

Under state and federal laws, individuals with disabilities may request reasonable accommodations from housing providers and we must consider the request. Reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices and services must be allowed to give persons with disabilities an equal opportunity to use and enjoy housing, provided such accommodation does not impose an undue hardship or requests a change in the fundamental nature of our business. Residents with disabilities must be allowed to make reasonable modifications to their apartments and common areas at their own expense subject to appropriate construction and restoration considerations.

It is our policy to verify that the individual qualifies as disabled, as that term is defined by law, and requires the accommodation to have equal opportunity to use and enjoy the apartment community.

We would appreciate your cooperation in answering the following questions and returning it to the Landlord. You may reply by email to: ______ or use the enclosed self-addressed envelope for this purpose. The resident has consented to the release of information, as shown on the last page.

Definition of Disabled

Under federal law, an individual is disabled if he/she has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities: has a record of such an impairment; or is regarded as having such an impairment.
