

Born and raised in Latvia, a small country on the Baltic Sea. Oksana grew up learning the importance of discipline and hard work. She graduated from the University of Latvia with an Accounting Degree, which subsequently earned her a scholarship to continue her education in the United States. Oksana chose the University of Cincinnati where she earned a post graduate degree in Accounting and Business Management. In 2001, Oksana began her management career in the restaurant industry. She truly enjoyed her experience as General Manager at Maggiano's Little Italy. Oksana's life had taught her the value of hard work and it felt rewarding to experience the result of it in a Country that is known for its history of accomplished Immigrants. In 2005 Oksana made the wise choice to further her career in the field of Property Management. Although she enjoyed commercial projects, Oksana absolutely fell in love with the residential side. Oksana knew it was her forte as she recognized a very special responsibility and the honor to serve people with providing quality, safe and well-maintained home. She quickly advanced from a Property Manager to a District Manager to a Regional Manager, VP of Operations and now as the President of Property Management with Denizen Management.

Oksana holds CAPS designation and currently serves on the Board of Directors with Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky, OAA Legislative Committee and as a Delegate of Ohio to NAA which provides employees and the clients of Denizen Management with an advantage of a first row seat to constant developments in the industry as well as her participation in creating local and State legislature in Real Estate, Property Management and Fair Housing sectors.

One of Oksana's greatest strengths is in building relationships and creating a bridge to problem solving and decision making to generate growth and to build value. Oksana speaks 3 languages, enjoys raising her 2 daughters, traveling, and working on continuous personal development.
